

Optimize your condo, co-op and HOA management capabilities

Solution Overview

Whether you specialize in condominiums, cooperatives or homeowners associations, MRI Software's CondoPlus allows you to manage operations according to how you want to do business. Specifically tailored for the unique requirements of the market, CondoPlus operates within MRI's industry leading Residential Management and Accounting platforms.

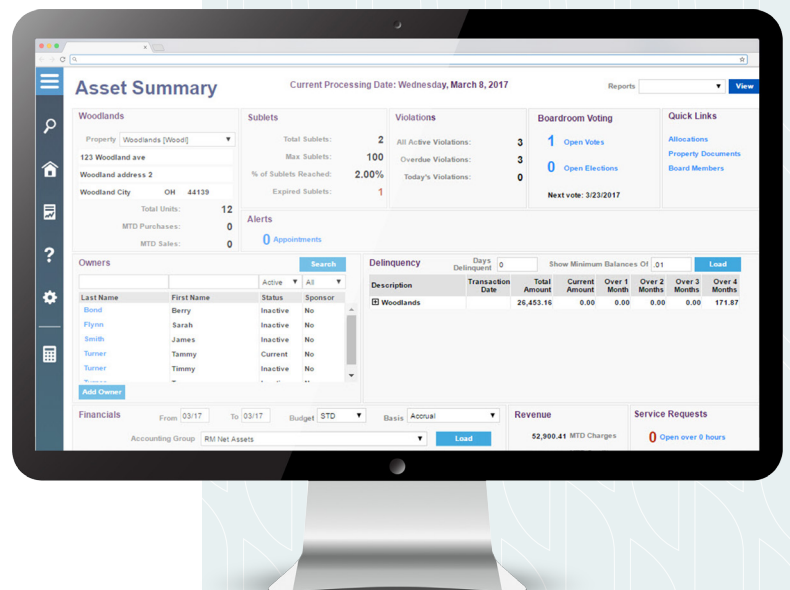

Key Features

- Track and manage board activity including voting activity, communication and association documents
- Intuitive dashboard delivers insight into aged delinquencies, sublease allotments, violations, etc.
- Access to both GL and financial reporting
- Manage and store documents for owners and subleases electronically
- Track service requests and work order billing from within the module
- Easily increase maintenance fees or share prices in one simple worksheet process
- Effortlessly manage multi-owners from single screen

Business Benefits

- Get accurate and real-time data for decision making
- Increase revenue collection through automated allocations
- Simplify board member management with new boardroom tools
- Easily access revenue tracking via customizable dashboards
- Increase visibility by easily retrieving key unit information

Contact us to learn more about how this solution can help your business.